- Mesoscopic, nano-electromechanical and nano-optical systems
- Biological systems, molecular motors and quantum biology
- Cosmology, gravitation and astrophysics

Scientific Program (subject to change)

The program has two types of lectures. Overview invited lectures cover a somewhat broader area or a few related topics (30 minutes), while shorter invited lectures (20 minutes) deal with promising progress in developing and understanding particular topics or techniques related to the scope of the conference. Submitted contributions will be presented and discussed only in the poster session. Due to the shortage of time for invited lectures, the scientific committee will also invite special invited poster contributions, which may be discussed in a related poster session "meeting". Evening lectures will be announced later.

Participation and Contributions

Participation at the conference is limited by its intended purpose and by the capacity of the local facilities. Oral contributions are only invited by the Scientific Committee. Duration of the invited lectures will be communicated to individual speakers after the participation of most speakers is confirmed. Apart from a talk, every invited speaker can additionally contribute by one poster. Participants who are not invited as speakers are encouraged to submit a poster contribution. The Scientific committee will decide poster acceptance.

ON-LINE REGISTRATION

All participants, including invited speakers and poster contributors, should register in advance by filling out the registration form at the Registration page of the conference.

- Sunday July 9, 6 p.m. - 9 p.m.
- Monday July 10, 7 a.m. - 12 a.m.

Later on, there will be a possibility to register in the Conference Office on the ground floor of the Hotel.

The participants are kindly asked to register, if possible, on Sunday, July 9.

Welcome refreshment on Sunday will be held in the Lounge of the hotel.

VENUE – CONFERENCE SITE

The FQMT'17 conference will take place at the following site:

Pyramida Hotel

Address: Orea Hotel Pyramida, Bělohorská 24, 169 01 Praha 6

All regular talks, poster session and some social events of the FQMT'17 conference will be held in the halls of the Pyramida Hotel. Participants are strongly recommended to accommodate in this hotel since this gives them a possibility of optimal use of their time during the conference.

ACCOMMODATION

The organizers of the conference have reserved limited number of rooms for participants of FQMT'17 in the Pyramida Hotel, the site of the conference, with advantageous price discounts.

In the Pyramida Hotel most of the FQMT'17 conference events will take place, including all regular talks, poster session and some social events. The hotel provides its guests with breakfast and for the participants of the conference a possibility to buy a lunch at a reduced price. Participants are therefore strongly recommended to accommodate in this hotel since this gives them a possibility of optimal use of their time during the conference.

Organizers of FQMT'17 would like to ask participants (especially invited ones) to reserve there accommodation as soon as possible. The number of reserved rooms in the Pyramida Hotel is now limited as well as price discounts are time limited. Organizers are able to reserve still another rooms with discount prices for participants only if need arises in time.

Rooms in the Pyramida Hotel are reserved from Sunday July 9 till Sunday July 16, but when you reserve your room sufficiently early there will be a very good chance for you to reserve your accommodation (for the discount price) for any period of time between July 7 and July 21. Participants thus can use these discount prices for their accommodation to take part in both conference and enjoy Prague for longer time either before or after FQMT'17.

Please, use for your reservation the direct link to the Pyramida hotel via the www page <http://tinyurl.com/FQMT2017>.

Alternatively, you can access the reservation link from the FQMT'17 www pages – Accommodation.

When communicating with the Pyramida Hotel, please use as the password FQMT17.

Pyramida Hotel

Comfortable four-star hotel, the site of FQMT'17 - most of the conference program will be held there.

Pyramida Hotel is a newly reconstructed building which is also used as a conference center. It offers a wide selection of conference services.

Pyramida Hotel is situated in the residential area of Prague called Břevnov near the Prague Castle - It is in the same time very near the historical center of Prague and Prague international airport - about 20 minutes by car.
