

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our cordial thanks to all who helped make this conference a success. We have much pleasure in thanking several organizations, in particular: the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, and especially its Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions; the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic and its Institute of Physics; the Charles University, its Faculty of Mathematics and Physics and its Institute of Physics; the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra; and the Metropolitan Chapter of the Saint Vitus Cathedral for their support and the very efficient help during the conference.

Several persons from these institutions deserve special recognition due to their role in the rise of the FQMT'11 conference:

First of all, we are very grateful to Jiří Drahoš (President of the Academy of Sciences), Jan Palouš (member of the Academic Council of the Academy of Sciences), Jaroslav Tůma (Vice President of the Academy of Sciences), Pavel Vlasák (member of the Scientific Council of the Academy of Sciences), Václav Hampl (Rector of Charles University), Zdeněk Němeček (Dean of the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of Charles University), and Bedřich Velický (Professor of the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of Charles University) for their support of the conference.

Jan Řídký (Director of the Institute of Physics of Academy of Sciences) helped with the organization of the conference from the very beginning till the very end. The support of Jiří J. Mareš (Head of the Department of Semiconductors of the Institute of Physics), and the efficient assistance of members of his department both before and during the conference, who helped to solve many problems smoothly and essentially contributed to the excellent level of the conference. Our thanks belong especially to the accountant of the Institute of Physics of the Academy of Sciences, Eva Lhotáková, for her help with the conference finances, its banking and especially for her help and her patience when dealing with changes in currency exchange rates. We also appreciate the technical assistance of Martin Faltys of the Institute of Physics.

We would like to express our very special thanks to the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, first of all to its President, Milan Štěch, and its Vice President, Alena Gajdůšková. We are very thankful for the help of Marta Hubová (secretary of the Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions of the Senate) and her assistant, Hana Borodáčová, of Jaroslav Müllner (director of the Secretariat of the President of the Senate) and of Jana Kykalová (Department of Protocol).

We wish also to thank some other institutions and their staff who contributed to the excellent level of all the social events: David Mareček (Director of the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Marie Peřinová (Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Věra Jenčová (Prague Symphony Orchestra FOK), Dominik Cardinal Duka (Archbishop of Prague), his secretary, Tomáš Roule, Václav Soukup (Secretary Dean of the Metropolitan Chapter and the Manager of the Saint Vitus Cathedral), and Vladimír Kelnar (Vicar of the Týn Church).

The organizers are particularly grateful to all the musicians who contributed to extraordinary enjoyment of the participants and their guests during all four conference concerts: Prague Castle Trumpeters (František Svejkovský, Jan Verner, Tomáš Hrbáček, Josef Trnka, Zdeněk Thuma, Rostislav Pavlík, Miroslav Turek), Original Prague Syncopated Orchestra (Alice Bauer, Matěj Černý, Zbyněk Dobrohuška, Jiří Gilík, Tomáš Jirák, Pavel Klikar, Vojtěch Pospíšil, Jan Šimůnek, Antonín Šturma), Václav Eichler, Josef Kšica, Přemysl Kšica, Pavla Bušová, Zdeněk Šedivý, František Svejkovský, and Tomáš Víšek. Our very special thanks go to the exceptionally gifted violinist and conductor, Yuval Waldman, for his help with the musical program and his active participation in the FQMT'11 concerts.

The organizers gladly acknowledge also many other local people who helped out with the organization which ensured that at all instances the formal steps went smoothly, which was already visible by how remarkably smooth registration proceeded. The involved people were: Bohuslav Drahoš, Karel Havránek, Jan Kšica, Jana Kubištová, Markéta Lazarová, Leona Linhartová-Pejcharová, Lucie Prušáková, Jitka Svobodová, Marie Svobodová, Štěpán Uxa, Jan Vyskočil and Karolína Vyskočilová.

We are very grateful to the staff of the Pyramida Hotel, the seat of the Conference, and especially to Zdeněk Hlinský (director of the Hotel), Ludmila Křehlová and Michal Maniš for creating hospitable atmosphere during the whole conference and very good services.

We further wish to extend a big thank you to our excellent guides, Renata Heroldová, Pavel Černý and Martina Doupětová, who, together with Jan Cibulka of Prague Public Transport Co., contributed to our wonderfully successful guided tours. We also acknowledge Jana Brzobohatá of the Civic Association Práh for a bountiful supply of beautiful conference bags.

Our very special thanks go to: Martin Rees and Claude Cohen-Tannoudji, who so graciously accepted our invitation to participate at the FQMT'11. Their evening lectures were scientifically enlightening and were immensely enjoyed by all the participants and their guests.

Last, but not least, we would like to thank all chairmen of the respective sessions and all members of the Scientific and the Organizing committees, in particular Roger Balian. Without their tireless efforts the conference would not have been possible.
