

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our cordial thanks to all who helped make this conference a success. We have much pleasure in thanking several organizations, in particular: the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, and especially its Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions; the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic and its Institute of Physics; the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra; Prague Symphony Orchestra FOK; and the Metropolitan Chapter of the Saint Vitus Cathedral for their support and very efficient help during the conference.

Several persons from these institutions deserve special recognition due to their role in the success of the FQMT'13 conference:

First of all, we are very grateful to Jiří Drahoš (President of the Academy of Sciences), Jan Palouš (member of the Academy Council of the Academy of Sciences), Jan Šafanda (member of the Academy Council of the Academy of Sciences), Pavel Vlasák (member of the Council for Sciences of the Academy of Sciences), and Bedřich Velický (Professor of the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of Charles University) for their support of the conference.

Jan Řídký (Director of the Institute of Physics of Academy of Sciences) helped with the organization of the conference from the very beginning till the very end. The support of Jiří J. Mareš (Deputy Director and Head of the Department of Semiconductors of the Institute of Physics), and the efficient assistance of members of his department both before and during the conference, who helped to solve many problems smoothly and essentially contributed to the excellent level of the conference. Our thanks belong especially to the accountants of the Institute of Physics of the Academy of Sciences, Miroslav Hořejší and Eva Lhotáková, for their help with the conference finances. We also appreciate the technical assistance of Martin Faltys of the Institute of Physics.

We appreciate very much auspices and support of the President of the Czech Republic, Miloš Zeman.

We would like to express our very special thanks to the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, first of all to its President, Milan Štěch, and its Vice President, Alena Gajdůšková. We are very thankful for the help of Marta Hubová (Secretary of the Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions of the Senate) and her assistant, Hana Borodáčová, of Jaroslav Müllner (Director of the Secretariat of the President of the Senate) and of Šárka Malohlavová (Department of Protocol).

We wish also to thank some other institutions and their staff who contributed to the excellent level of all the social events: Dominik Cardinal Duka (Archbishop of Prague), his secretary, Tomáš Roule, Ondřej Pávek (Dean of the Metropolitan Chapter), Václav Soukup (Secretary Dean of the Metropolitan Chapter and the Manager of the Saint Vitus Cathedral), David Mareček (Director of the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Marie Peřinová (Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), and Věra Jenčová (Prague Symphony Orchestra FOK),

The organizers are particularly grateful to all the musicians who contributed to extraordinary enjoyment of the participants and their guests during all four conference concerts: Prague Castle Trumpeters (František Svejkský, Jan Verner, Josef Trnka, Zdeněk Thuma, Rostislav Pavlík), Original Prague Syncopated Orchestra (Alice Bauer, Matěj Černý, Tomáš Černý, Zbyněk Dobrohruška, Antonín Dlapa, Jiří Gilík, Pavel Klikar, Ladislav Kokeš, Jan Šimůnek, Jakub Šnýdl, Adéla Zejfartová), Ars Instrumentalis (Luboš Hucek, Josef Kšica, Pavel Nejtek, Liběna Sequardtová, Ivan Sequardt), Miroslav Kejmar, Pavla Bušová, Josef Kšica, Přemysl Kšica, Jiří Lukeš, Kristina Švábová, František Svejkský, Yasuko Tanaka, and Tomáš Víšek. Our very special thanks go to the exceptionally gifted violinist and conductor, Yuval Waldman, for his help with the musical program and his active participation in the FQMT'13 concerts. We wish also to thank very much Pavla Bušová and Josef Kšica for their help with the musical programs, organization, and their active participation in the FQMT'13 concerts.

The organizers gladly acknowledge also many other local people who helped out with the organization which ensured that at all instances the formal steps went smoothly, which was already visible by how remarkably smooth registration proceeded. The involved people were: Vladimíra Andrýsová, Dagmar Butkovičová, Bohuslav Drahoš, Jaroslava Fojtíková, Václav Hanus, Martin Koštejn, Jan Kšica, Pavel Kšica, Jana Kubištová, Markéta Lazarová, Petr Levinský, Tomáš Nácovský, Markéta Pokorná, Václav Pokorný, Lucie Prušáková, Lucie Šebestová, Vladimír Svoboda, Jitka Svobodová, and Pavla Vinopalová.

We are very grateful to the staff of the Pyramida Hotel, the seat of the Conference, and especially to Zdeněk Hlinský (director of the Hotel), Ludmila Křehlová and Michal Maniš for creating hospitable atmosphere during the whole conference and very good services.

We further wish to extend a big thank you to our excellent guides, Renata Heroldová, Pavel Černý and Martina Doubětová, who, together with Jan Cibulka of Prague Public Transport Co., contributed to our wonderfully successful guided tours. We also acknowledge Jana Brzobohatá of the Civic Association TyfloCentrum Brno for a bountiful supply of beautiful conference bags.

Our very special thanks go to: Serge Haroche and Pavel Kroupa, who so graciously accepted our invitation to participate at the FQMT'13. Their evening lectures were scientifically enlightening and were immensely enjoyed by all the participants and their guests.

Last, but not least, we would like to thank all chairmen of the respective sessions and all members of the Scientific and the Organizing committees, in particular Roger Balian. Without their tireless efforts the conference would not have been possible.

Theo M. Nieuwenhuizen, Peter D. Keefe and Václav Špička