

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our cordial thanks to all who helped make this conference a success. We have much pleasure in thanking several organizations, in particular: the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, and especially its Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions; the Czech Academy of Sciences and its Institute of Physics; the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra; Prague Symphony Orchestra FOK; the Archbishopric of Prague; and the Metropolitan Chapter of the Saint Vitus Cathedral for their support and very efficient help during the conference.

Several persons from these institutions deserve special recognition due to their role in the success of the FQMT'15 conference:

First of all, we are very grateful to Jiří Drahoš (President of the Academy of Sciences), Jan Šafanda (member of the Academy Council of the Academy of Sciences), Pavel Vlasák (member of the Council for Sciences of the Academy of Sciences), and Bedřich Velický (Professor of the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of Charles University) for their support of the conference.

Jan Řídký (Director of the Institute of Physics of the Academy of Sciences) helped with the organization of the conference from the very beginning till the very end. The support of Jiří J. Mareš (Deputy Director and Head of the Department of Semiconductors of the Institute of Physics), and the efficient assistance of members of his department both before and during the conference, who helped solve many problems smoothly and essentially contributed to the excellent level of the conference. Our thanks extend especially to the accountants of the Institute of Physics of the Academy of Sciences, Miroslav Hořejší and Eva Lhotáková, for their help with the conference finances. We also appreciate the technical assistance of Martin Faltys of the Institute of Physics.

We appreciate very much the auspices and support of the President of the Czech Republic, Miloš Zeman.

We would like to express our very special thanks to the Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic, first of all to its President, Milan Štěch, and its Vice Presidents, Ivo Bábek and Miluše Horská. We are very thankful for the help of Jana Hauserová (Secretary of the Committee on Education, Science, Culture, Human Rights and Petitions of the Senate) and her assistant, Hana Borodáčová, of Jaroslav Müllner (Director of the Secretariat of the President of the Senate) and of Valérie Ciprová (Department of the Protocol of the Senate).

We wish also to thank some other institutions and their staff who contributed to the excellent level of all the social events: Dominik Cardinal Duka (Archbishop of Prague), Vojtěch Mátl, sister Dominika Bohušová (Archbishopric of Prague), Ondřej Pávek (Dean of the Metropolitan Chapter), Václav Soukup (Secretary Dean of the Metropolitan Chapter) Damián Faber (Manager of the Saint Vitus Cathedral), David Mareček (Director of the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Alena Špačková (Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Jaroslav Šefrna, Eva Kolková (Prague Symphony Orchestra FOK), father Prokop Siostrzonek (prior of Břevnov Monastery), brother Aleš Zdeněk Vandrovec, brother Václav Snětina, and Iva Kuchařová (Břevnov Monastery).

The organizers are particularly grateful to all the musicians who contributed to extraordinary enjoyment of the participants and their guests during all four conference concerts: Prague Castle Trumpeters (Petr Cibulka, Martin Homolka, Tomáš Hrbáček, Rostislav Pavlík, Zdeněk Thuma, František Svejkovský, Miroslav Turek), Pavla Bušová, Jan Fišer, Jiří Hlaváč, Miroslav Kejmar, Josef Kšica, Přemysl Kšica, Paul Alan Levi, Martin Misár, and Tomáš Víšek. Our very special thanks go to the exceptionally gifted violinist and conductor, Yuval Waldman, for his help with the musical program and his active participation in the FQMT'15 concerts. We wish also to thank very much Pavla Bušová and Josef Kšica for their help with the musical programs, organization, and their active participation in the FQMT'15 concerts.

The organizers gladly acknowledge also many other local people who helped out with the organization which ensured that at all instances the formal steps went smoothly, which was already visible by how remarkably smooth registration proceeded. The involved people were: Michal Čech, Aleš Chudíček, Barbora Chudíčková, jr., Bohuslav Drahoš, Veronika Karlíková, Lenka Krejčová, Jan Kšica, Pavel Kšica, Tomáš Kulda, Václav Pokorný, Jan Rubín, Eva Sedláčková, Marie Sedláčková, Vladimír Svoboda, Jitka Svobodová, Pavla Vinopalová, Jakub Vyskočil, and Markéta Zíková.

We are very grateful to the staff of the Pyramida Hotel, the seat of the Conference, and especially to Jaroslav Jedlička (director of the Hotel), Jindra Fišerová, Martina Hrdličková, Ludmila Křehlová, Michal Maniš and Jiří Vápeník for creating hospitable atmosphere during the whole conference and very good services.

We further wish to extend a big thank you to our excellent guides, Pavel Černý, Renata Heroldová, and Jitka Kopecká, who, together with Jan Cibulka of Prague Public Transport Co., contributed to our wonderfully successful guided tours. We also acknowledge Jana Brzobohatá of the Civic Association TyfloCentrum Brno for a bountiful supply of beautiful conference bags.

Our very special thanks go to: Gerard 't Hooft and Marlan Scully, who so graciously accepted our invitation to participate at the FQMT'15. Their evening lectures were scientifically enlightening and were immensely enjoyed by all the participants and their guests.

Last, but not least, we would like to thank all chairmen of the respective sessions and all members of the Scientific and the Organizing committees, in particular Roger Balian. Without their tireless efforts the conference would not have been possible.

Peter D. Keefe, Theo M. Nieuwenhuizen, and Václav Špička
